Where lacemaking lives on

Hello Lace-Makers --

Hope you are staying warm during these cold winter days. The CRLG Board is staying busy working out details and logistics for a 3 day workshop on Bedfordshire Lace and planning for our 40th Anniversary Celebration at Spring Lace Day on April 28. Find more details and other information below. If you have any photos or news items you would like to submit for future issues of this newsletter, please send them to the CRLG email: crlgweb@gmail.com

Happy Lace-making Everyone!

P.S. -- Tatters Check out a fun project at the end of this newsletter!

Lace Demonstration Requests

The Talbot County Historical Society is looking for lace demonstrators for sometime between April 7 and June 30, 2018 in coordination with their exhibit during that time. They are flexible with the time of the demonstration (from their website, it appears they are only open on Thursdays, Friday, and Saturdays). They are interested in tatting, bobbin, and needle lace. They also hope the demonstrator(s) would share how they came to learn their craft. If interested in this opportunity, please contact:

ATTENTION TATTERS: Cathy de Greef is inviting tatters to make and send to her small pink tatted squares that she will use to festoon a monument in Brussels this August. This editor has made one of the little squares and plans to do a few more to mail off before Cathy's March 1 deadline. You can find the free pattern and information videos on her website
